

Dear Friends,

Welcome to 2011 at Kauri Cliffs, The Farm at Cape Kidnappers, and Matakauri Lodge. It has been a fabulous summer at all three lodges and we look forward to the excitement the year brings to New Zealand, when the world's eyes are on us during the Rugby World Cup.

If you are a New Zealand or Australian resident you'll be pleased to see our popular Winter Special starts a month early this year on April 1, when plenty of great weather is on offer. And for the food and wine lover, hot on the heels of the amazing Thomas Keller and Heston Blumenthal dinner we bring you another great line-up of food and wine events at the lodges in 2011!

MATAKAURI LODGE

INTRODUCING THE 2011 WINTER FOOD AND WINE SERIES

WE ARE PROUD TO BRING SOME OF THE WORLD'S BEST FOOD AND WINE IDENTITIES TO THE LODGES FOR OUR EVER POPULAR WINTER EVENTS

SATURDAY, 28 MAY AT CAPE KIDNAPPERS

LOUIS ROEDERER

CHAMPAGNE DINNER

Calling all champagne lovers! This will be a very special weekend at Cape Kidnappers – indulging in a five course dinner, enjoying spectacular views over the Pacific Ocean, while enjoying a range of champagnes and vintages from famed champagne house, Louis Roederer, skillfully matched to each course. A special bottle to enjoy in your room is also part of this beautiful weekend.

Both understated, tasteful and fun... Louis Roederer and Cape Kidnappers seems a match made in heaven!

Louis Roederer is the champagne of choice for Aston Martin and the very best restaurants in France. It is the most successful privately owned marque and the brand which created prestige champagne with Cristal, arguably the greatest style ever.

SATURDAY, 02 JULY AT MATAKAURI LODGE

MARK BEST

FROM MARQUE RESTAURANT, SYDNEY

PYRAMID VALLEY WINES NORTH CANTERBURY

Mark Best is one of the world's foremost chefs working today – his Marque Restaurant, in Sydney's Surry Hills, was named one of the 'World's 50 Best Restaurants' in the revered 2010 San Pellegrino Restaurant Awards and was named 'Restaurant Of The Year' in the Sydney Morning Herald 2011, Good Food Guide Awards. In short, his food is amazing.

Mark suggested we invite Mike and Claudia Weersing to match their Pyramid Valley wines to his dinner, so taken was Mark by their quality and dedication to producing biodynamic wines at their North Canterbury vineyard.

Expect an exquisite meal matched to some of New Zealand's best wines along with some erudite words from this impressive trio.

SATURDAY, 06 AUGUST AT CAPE KIDNAPPERS

SHANNON BENNETT

FROM VUE DE MONDE, MELBOURNE

Craggy Range Wines HAWKE'S BAY

Join chef and owner of internationally acclaimed restaurant Vue de monde for a tasting menu of favourite dishes. Without compromise in his principles and ingredients, Shannon has fashioned his own innovative way of cooking, matching the efforts of acknowledged masters worldwide. This dedication and pride has established Shannon as one of Australia's and the world's most exciting chefs, and has helped redefine Australian cuisine.

Shannon will be joined by Master of Wine, Steve Smith who will match each course to wines from Craggy Range. Steve will also conduct a tasting of the Craggy Range Prestige Collection for guests before dinner.

Quite simply, a superb weekend is in store.

SATURDAY, 27 AUGUST AT KAURI CLIFFS

RICK STEIN

PADSTOW, CORNWALL

TE AWA WINES HAWKE'S BAY

Rick Stein really needs little introduction. From humble beginnings at his fish restaurant in the Cornish seaside town of Padstow, today he globetrots the world in his quest for fresh, well-sourced food.

Expect a touch of Spain in the fresh and innovative menu he is planning at Kauri Cliffs - inspired by a country he loves, his latest book and BBC series.

Wine maker Ant MacKenzie from Te Awa Wines in Hawke's Bay will match wines from Te Awa and the new Kidnapper Cliffs brand to Rick's dishes and talk you through his selections between courses.
